

As a Flight Attendant I am against the use of a cellphone while inflight. The area in which we work is very confined as it is and it would cause a huge disturbance. Some conversations are meant to be in private and the general public should respect that.